State			Once again would you please appoint a scribe and chairman. After you complete this exercise we will ask all the groups to present their finished product, Vision, Goals and Action Plan to the entire group.
State			Congratulation to you all for their presentations. Some great ideas have come out of this session. It is now up to you and the District MERL team to put the plans into action.

			The process is continuous. First you establish your vision. You then look at establishing Goals that will assist you to achieve your vision and then you set up the action plan to achieve the goals. If you find that after doing all this including completing the action and you have not achieved your vision you need to review the goals that you set. Similarly if you complete the actions that have been established to meet a goal and you find that you not done so than you need to review your actions.	Slide 4
